SALARY RANGE:	$ 6,173.00 - $ 7,838.00 / Month	BULLETIN ID:	04172012_3

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Under general direction of the Director and Chief Deputy Director of the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CAL FIRE), the Chief of Program Accountability formulates and administers CAL FIRE's statewide Office of Program Accountability, which performs a variety of complex technical management audits, including operational audits of programs within the Department and the financial and performance reviews of major incidents for compliance with State and Departmental policies, rules, and regulations.

This position also functions as CAL FIRE Information Security Officer and Privacy Program Coordinator, acting as the liaison between the Department and the State Offices of Information Security and Privacy Protection.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Either I

Must be a State civil service employee with permanent civil service status or who previously had permanent status in the State civil service.

Or II

Must be a current or former employee of the Legislature, with two or more consecutive years as defined in Government code § 18990.

Or III

Must be a current or former non-elected exempt employee of the Executive Branch with two or more consecutive years (excluding those positions for which salaries are set by statute) as defined in Government Code § 18992.

Or IV

Must be a person retired from the United States military, honorably discharged from active military duty with a service-connected disability, or honorably discharged from active duty as defined in Government Code § 18991.

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

Applicants must demonstrate the ability to perform high administrative and policy – influencing functions effectively. Such overall ability requires possession of most of the following more specific knowledge and abilities:

(1) Knowledge of the organization and functions of California State Government including the organization and practices of the Legislature and the Executive Branch; principles, practices, and trends of public administration, organization, and management; techniques of organizing and motivating groups; program development and evaluation; methods of administrative problem solving; principles and practices of policy formulation and development; and personnel management techniques; the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives; and a manager's role in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program.

(2) Ability to plan, organize, and direct the work of multidisciplinary professional and administrative staff; analyze administrative policies, organization, procedures and practices; integrate the activities of a diverse program to attain common goals; gain the confidence and support of top level administrators and advise them on a wide range of administrative matters; develop cooperative working relationships with representatives of all levels of government, the public, and the Legislature and Executive branches; analyze complex problems and recommend effective courses of action; and prepare and review reports; and effectively contribute to the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity objectives.

These knowledge and abilities are expected to be obtained from the following kinds of experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation and/or evaluation of program policies (experience may have been paid or volunteer; in State service, other government settings, or in a private organization):

CEA Level 1. Supervisory/administrative experience in a line or staff activity, including the execution and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 2 and 3. Broad administrative or program manager experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 4 and 5. Extensive managerial and program administrative experience which has included substantial responsibility for a combination of management functions such as program planning; policy formulation; organization coordination and control; and fiscal and personnel management. Where high technical professional qualifications are of primary importance in performing the duties of a given CEA position, then the above required experience may have been in a staff capacity exercising professional skills to influence and contribute to program, policy, and methods of providing those professional services. Primary examples are medical doctors and attorneys.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATION(S)

In addition to evaluating each candidate's relative ability, as demonstrated by the quality of breadth of experience, the following factors will be emphasized in competitively evaluating each candidate:

Demonstrated experience which has included broad administrative and/or program manager capabilities, with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and/or evaluation of program policies.

Demonstrated ability to manage the review and evaluation of highly sensitive programmatic and administrative issues including the ability to formulate policy and procedural recommendations.

Knowledge of and demonstrated experience managing and directing complex internal control audits and program reviews.

Knowledge of the functions, organization, and practices of California government including the Natural Resources Agency, Department of Finance, Bureau of State Audits, Department of General Services, Office of the Inspector General, State Controller's Office, and CAL FIRE programs.

Strong leadership skills and the ability to function effectively as a member of the executive staff regarding sensitive issues such as special program reviews, audit requests, external audit activities, and physical and data security concerns.

Demonstrated ability to develop cooperative working relationships with staff and other governmental agencies.

Knowledge of information security and privacy.

Demonstrated ability to effectively communicate and represent CAL FIRE before the Executive Management Team, control agencies, Legislature, and special interest groups.
